

The 21st Annual International Meeting of the Brunswik Society
Toronto
November 10-11th 2005
Wentworth Room
Sheraton Centre Hotel

Thursday 10th 2005

- 12.00 – 12.45 Late registration
- 12.45 – 13.00 Welcome (Jim Holzworth, Mandeep Dhama, Elise Weaver, Tom Stewart)
- Paper session 1 Exposition of Brunswik's and Hammond's ideas (Chair: Mike Doherty)
- 13.00 – 13.30 Bernhard Wolf, The basic lens model as a paradigm of cognitive processes in individuals
- 13.30 – 14.00 Ben Backus, Cue recruitment and visual appearance: effect of Pavlovian conditioning on the construction of percepts
- 14.00 – 14.30 Rob Hamm, What if the judge uses two distinct judgment policies?
- 14.30 – 15.00 Amy Reese & Jim Holzworth, Individual differences and the cognitive continuum
- 15.00 – 15.15 Tea & coffee break
- Paper session 2 Applications (Chair: Clare Harries)
- 15.15 – 15.45 Jamie Brehaut, Robert Wigton & Ian Stiell, A single-model analysis of use of clinical decision rules among emergency physicians
- 15.45 – 16.15 Christine Huttin, New cost sensitivity index based on cognitive cost cues for an application of the lens model on physician's choices
- 16.15 – 16.45 Marcio Carvalho, Federal representatives' judgments in the Brazilian congress
- 16.45 – 17.15 Phil Dunwoody, Dennis Plane, David Drews, Devin Rice & Alexander Rinehart, Judgments of potential threat to US citizens or interests
- 17.15 – 17.45 J. McLennan, A. Holgate, Mary Omodei & Alex Wearing, Decision making in bushfire incident management teams
- 17.45 Adjourn
- 19.00 Group dinner at Christina's. Greek cuisine. Get on at the Queen Subway Station. Go North to Bloor Station and East to Pape Station. Look for Christina's at 492 Danforth Ave. Reservation under: Mandeep Dhama.

Friday 11th 2005

08.30 – 09.00	Breakfast
Paper session 3	Methods (Chair: Neal Dawson)
09.00 – 09.30	Robert Wigton, Benjamin Miriovsky, Thomas Tape & Devin Nickol, A new method for analysis of judgment policy using sequential selection of cues in clinical vignettes
09.30 – 10.00	David Weiss, Individual performance and team functioning
10.00 – 10.30	Elise Weaver, Importance weight motion as a function of prior distance to advice
10.30 – 10.45	Tea & coffee break
Paper session 4	The lens model and heuristics (Chair: Mandeep Dhani)
10.45 – 11.15	Konstantinos Katsikopoulos, Connecting lens models and fast and frugal heuristics: Focus on processes
11.15 – 11.45	Robin Hogarth & Natalia Karelaia, On heuristic and linear models of judgment: Mapping the demand for knowledge
11.45 – 12.15	Bettina von Helversen & Joerg Rieskamp, How people estimate a continuous criterion: Does the environment influence which strategy is chosen?
12.15 – 12.45	Thorsten Pachur, Cues or instances: What is used for inferences about event frequencies?
12.45 – 13.00	Break to pick-up lunch
Lunch panel	Future of the Brunswik Society (Chair: Ken Hammond)
13.00 – 15.00	Ken Hammond, What's ahead for the Brunswik society? Discussants: Phil Dunwoody, Jeryl Mumpower, Mandeep Dhani
Paper session 5	Choice and judgment (Chair: Tom Tape)
15.00 – 15.30	Gary McClelland, Bruce Pfeiffer & Donald Lichtenstein, The ecology of price and quantity
15.30 – 16.00	Claudia Gonzalez-Vallejo, Understanding preferences from Thurstonian and Brunswikian perspectives
16.00 – 16.15	Tea & coffee break
Paper session 6	New solutions to old problems (Chair: Jeryl Mumpower)
16.15 – 16.45	Nigel Harvey, Trend-damping in judgmental forecasting: An ecologically appropriate behaviour?
16.45 – 17.15	Rocio Garcia-Retamero, M. Takezawa, M. Gummerum, & Gerd Gigerenzer, When Individual Learning is not Enough: Social Learning in Group Decision-Making
17.15 – 17.45	James Shanteau, Overconfidence vs. self-confidence in experts
17.45 – 18.00	Hammond-Brunswik New Investigator Award (presented by Ken Hammond)
18.00	Farewell